Working on highly sensitive diplomatic affairs, Darcy Prescott is a natural target for the terrorists who abduct her one sultry Manila night. Ex Special Forces soldier and ex-husband Ethan Garrett, now a highly paid bodyguard, slips back into combat mode and assembles a rogue rescue team to find the woman he has never stopped loving.

This is the third novel in "The Bodyguards" series featuring sexy and daring bodyguards who will go to any length to protect the ones they love. The book stands alone so you don't have to worry if you haven't read her other two, as this reviewer hadn't. However, once you read it you might want to search the other two out as you will want more, more, more!

The author writes a fantastic story at a fast clip, the scenes move well and there is not one place where you feel comfortable closing the book to read another day. My heart raced as I put myself alongside the characters as they maneuvered through their various situations. As someone whose brother is in the Special Forces, it was intriguing to see the world through their eyes and to see what they go through. They don't talk much, these Special Forces guys, and I could see a lot of my brother in the hero, especially when he closed himself off. If you like Romantic Suspense that has heart pounding action then this is the book for you. I can't wait to read the next book and will be looking for the first two immediately!
